

East Clare Reel (D dorian)

*traditional Irish Reel, a.k.a.: Johnny McGreevy's, a.k.a.: Charlie Mulvihill's a.k.a.: The Cornboy; a.k.a.: McAuliff's Reel. It's also played in D mixolydian, also either single or double.
transcribed and arranged by Frank Weber, learned from the "Life is all Checkered" album Recordings: Randal Bays: Out of the Woods (1997); John McSherry & Dónal O'Connor: Tripswitch (2006);
Athena Tergis: A Letter Home (2007); Paul O'Shaughnessy & Harry Bradley: Born for Sport (2010);
Nathan Gourley & Laura Feddersen: Life is All Checkered (2014); Paddy O'Brien: Bright and Early (2015)*

Musical notation for the first four lines of the East Clare Reel. The music is in 4/4 time and D dorian mode. The first line has chords Dm, C, Dm, C. The second line has chords Dm, C, Dm, C. The third line has chords Dm, C, Dm, C. The fourth line has chords Dm, C, F, C.

Last line to finish:

Musical notation for the final line of the East Clare Reel. The music is in 4/4 time and D dorian mode. The line has chords Dm, C, F, C, Dm.